

Water Well License Exam Rules

The following are not allowed while taking the water well license examination:

- Laptop
- Cellphone
- Calculators
- Papers, books, folders or other type documents
- Briefcase
- Other people

The above-listed items may be left with Pam Chaffee, Chief of Water Well & Technical Support Unit, which will be held in her office until you have finished the exam (*). If your items need to be secured, please inform us and we will do so.

I have read and understand the above listed rules.

Signature

Date

*When exam is given at a district office location, all Items above are to be left with the District Environmental Administrator (DEA) or the Administrative Specialist until the exam is completed.